TACTICAL FIREARMS: PISTOL GRIP SHOTGUNS

As with everything, there are positives and negatives to all weapons, and everyone has their own opinions.

These days a lot of people's opinions seem to be 3rd hand or YouTube-based, which can be concerning. For me, pistol grip shotguns are very effective and versatile weapons if used properly. Shotguns with stocks are easier to use and are more controllable with hotter magnum loads but lack the maneuverability of a pistol grip shotgun.
